UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAN JOSE DIVISION

MARIA CALAMATEOS,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL J. ASTRUE,
 Acting Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

CIVIL NO. C10-02900 LHK

STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR EXTENSION

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by the undersigned for the respective parties, subject to the approval of the Court, that the Commissioner have a second, 7-day extension of time in which to Plaintiff's Amended Complaint, up to and including March 1, 2011. This extension is being sought because the parties agree that this matter should be voluntarily remanded, but, due to scheduling issues, need more time to agree on the language of the remand.

The Commissioner had previously been granted a 30-day extension of time to confer with her client about remand, but that process took longer than expected for several reasons. These reasons include a rearranging of the people in the Commissioner's Court Case Preparation and Review Branch (CCPRB) responsible for reviewing cases that originate in the Ninth Circuit, a week-long illness of the CCPRB analyst assigned to this case and the fact that the undersigned attorney for the Commissioner had to seek further review after receiving the analyst's first response to her request for remand. The parties began discussing

1 the language of the remand on Friday, February 11, 2011, but counsel for Plaintiff was on the East Coast
2 and counsel for the Commissioner was, and still is, completing a Ninth Circuit brief that cannot be further
3 extended. Accordingly, the parties agreed to seek a short extension in order to continue their discussion.
